

Dear Friends, Please support me as I ride to raise money to send a team to The Garden of Hope in Thailand. The Garden of Hope is an organization that combats human trafficking and protects vulnerable and at-risk children and women from abusive environments in Southeast Asia. The Garden of Hope provides a transformational community dedicated to empowering exploited women to discover their self-worth, experience holistic healing and equipping them with viable skills for dignified, sustainable livelihood through vocational training and employment. Donations must be recieved by 8/29/2009 - checks made payable to Grace Community Covenant Church.
